Petition for Relief under Penal Code §1203.4 & §1203.4a Information and Instructions

After successful completion of probation, you may petition the court to dismiss the charges under Penal Code §1203.4. If it is in the interest of justice, the judge may allow you to file the petition before probation ends. You may also petition the court under 1203.4a after conviction of a misdemeanor. The differences of a 1203.4 and 1203.4a petition are listed in Section 2.

Section 1 - General Information:

1. A 1203.4/1203.4a petition must be filed in the same county in which the criminal case was adjudicated, or if probation was transferred the county which had jurisdiction at the time of termination.
2. A 1203.4/1203.4a petition allows a person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty.
3. Disclosure – Granting of this petition does NOT relieve you of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.
4. The granting of your request by the court does not eliminate from your record the fact that an arrest occurred or that the charge(s) were brought, only that a conviction occurred.
5. The conviction may still be alleged as a prior conviction in future criminal proceedings.
6. Department of Motor Vehicles – Granting of this petition does NOT affect DMV actions or future consequences for crimes involving operation of a motor vehicle.
7. Firearms – Granting of this petition does NOT permit you to own, possess, or have in your custody or control any firearm or ammunition.
8. Sealing – Granting of this petition does NOT seal your record. The case, including the conviction will remain public record.
9. Sex Registration – Granting of petition does NOT relieve you from any obligation to register under Penal Code §290.
